FOUR WORDS

The Christian Annual has been unusually long delayed. The delay was caused by the Spanish influenza, which postponed the session of The American Christian Convention.

Explanation The Convention was scheduled to meet at Conneaut, Ohio, October 15-21, 1918, and on account of the influenza was postponed. It was then thought that it might meet early in December, which hope was shattered for the same reason that postponed the original meeting. It was even then thought that it might meet early in January, of 1919, and The Annual was held open on that account, and when the time of meeting was definitely fixed for April 29th, it was then too late to get the publication out at the usual time. Had the Convention met, even in December, The Annual would have been out quite on time, and would, as in the quadrennial years before, been a Convention number.

Some of the items heretofore found in the report of churches are omitted this year. The urgent request of the government to conserve white paper, the scarcity of it, the difficulty of getting a sufficient quantity, the great cost of it when gotten, to which must be added the advance in wages and the few people to do the work, are the reasons for the omission. Then, too, some of the items remain unchanged year after year, which make their publication repetition rather than information.

The report of the Woman's Boards will be found in the Woman's Department, which is re-established at the request of those who have the larger amount of use for this department.

You are requested to examine this publication. Not, however, with a desire to criticise or find fault, but for the sake of the information it contains.

Examination It will reveal to you much that you should know, and especially so if you are pastor or church officer. Very frequently, indeed all too frequently, church officers write me for information which they could easily and quickly find in The Christian Annual.

Only a few days ago a church clerk wrote me to know where to send the Educational Collection. She said her pastor could not tell her.

I mailed to her a leaf taken from The Christian Annual and she remitted the offering and thanked me for the information.

Examine its records of the work done in the various departments of the church to which you belong, and especially the tables showing the number of churches in each conference, the number remitting for the regular offerings, and the various amounts contributed.

It will reveal to you what has been done, and help you to see what should and what could be done if only we would all work at the task. If you will study this book you will be able to answer almost any inquiry concerning the year's activities of the Christian Church. As a people, we are doing something, and what we do should be known. If you know what other conferences are doing, and how they have done it, it will help you to make yours more efficient. Read and compare, know and do, for what others have done, you may do.

“And I beseech you, brethren, suffer the word of exhortation; for I have written a letter unto you in few words.”

When you have read this number, my brethren, I Exhortation exhort you to speak of its value to others, and especially are pastors and conference officers exhorted thus to do.

Church officers are exhorted to see that they themselves have copies and that as many more be urged to possess them as may be induced so to do. I exhort you, brethren and sisters who have been honored with office, to see to it that all church officers are given copies of The Christian Annual. It is a tool with which to work, a source of knowledge from which to draw, and a giver of information greatly needed if the work of the church is to be well done. There is little danger of the rank and file of our people being too well informed, but there is great danger of them not knowing enough about the church to which they belong to make them intelligently efficient.

Let love of the brethren continue.

As for you, let that abide in you which ye heard from the beginning. If that which ye heard from the beginning abide Continuation in you, ye shall abide in the Son, and in the Father.

But abide thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them:

If so be that ye continue in the faith, grounded and stedfast, and not moved away from the hope of the gospel which ye heard, which was preached in all creation under heaven; whereof I Paul was made a minister.—Bible.

OUR PUBLICATIONS

The Christian Church has, from the beginning, been intensely interested in good literature, and has sought, with an honest heart and a ready pen, to supply the need of her children with wholesome reading, and has the very great distinction of having given to the world its first religious newspaper.

The Christian's Magazine. In 1805 Rev. Elias Smith, of Portsmouth, New Hampshire, started a paper which he called The Christian's Magazine. This paper was, no doubt, continued until near the close of 1808, when it was lost in the larger publication known as The Herald of Gospel Liberty. The suggestion to publish The Herald of Gospel Liberty is said to have been made by the Hon. Isaac Wilber, of Compton, R. I., at the time a member of the United States Congress, and that a plan was decided upon, which was afterward displaced by the individual plans of Rev. Mr. Smith. The first subscription list was 274, but it was soon increased to 1,500.

The Herald of Gospel Liberty was founded by Rev. Elias Smith, at Portsmouth, New Hampshire, in the year 1808, who continued to publish it until 1818, when it passed into the hands of Rev. Robert Foster, and the name changed to The Christian Herald, and was published as such until the year 1835, when The Eastern Publishing Association was organized, which bought of Mr. Foster his subscription list, and on April 20th of that year, the first number of the Christian Journal was issued, at Exeter, N. H., bearing the name of Elijah Shaw as editor. The paper can be traced throughout all the changes of names, and places, until it firmly and definitely settles as The Herald of Gospel Liberty. The paper is now issued by The Christian Publishing Association from its building in Dayton, Ohio, and at this date the subscription price is $2.00 a year. Rev. John Pressley Barrett, D. D., is editor, and Mr. Netum Rathbun is Manager. The subscription list includes about 3,600 names.

The Christian Sun, which shines so brilliantly in the southland, was established at Hillsboro, N. C., by Rev. D. W. Kerr, in 1844. It is now published at Burlington, N. C. This paper is owned and controlled by The Southern Christian Convention, which elects its editor biennially and otherwise superintends the business of the publication. The present editor is Rev. C. B. Riddle and the subscription price at this date is $2.00 a year. The subscription list includes 2,150 names.

The Christian Vanguard had its beginning in 1890, under the name, Christian Magazine. Rev. Thomas Garbutt was editor for several years. In 1892, Prof. J. N. Dales was elected associate editor, and, upon the resignation of Rev. Garbutt, succeeded to the editorship, with Rev. W. G. Sargent, then of Toronto, as associate editor and business manager. The publication is a conference enterprise, and has always been published at Newmarket, Ontario. The subscription price is 75 cents a year.

The Christian Missionary was begun by Rev. J. G. Bishop, D. D., the first issue bearing date, October, 1894. Dr. Bishop not only founded this periodical, but edited and published it for twelve years and three months, and saw the subscription list grow from a single name to full three thousand and six hundred. It is now edited by Rev. M. T. Morrill, Secretary for Foreign Missions, and Rev. Omer S. Thomas, Secretary for Home Missions. This publication is the official missionary organ of the Christian Church. The subscription price at this date is 50 cents a year, and the subscription list numbers 2,050 names.

The Sunday-school Literature. The Christian Publishing Association has been, since 1882, giving us a first-class Sunday-school literature, the first issue bearing date January, 1882, and the names of Rev. A. W. Coan as its editor, and Rev. C. W. Garoutte as its publisher. Our Sunday-school literature has improved with age and experience, until, to-day, no Christian Sunday-school has any reason for securing supplies outside our own Publishing House, for here anything in the Sunday-school line, from a penny card, to a Teacher's Bible, may be secured, and that, too, as reasonable in price as anywhere in all the land. The present publications are: The Sunday School Teachers and Officers Journal, The Christian Bible Class Quarterly, The Christian Intermediate Quarterly, The Christian Junior Quarterly, Our Scripture Picture Cards, The Sunday School Herald, The Junior Herald and Little Teacher. Rev. S. Q. Helfenstein, D. D., and Mr. Hermon Eldredge are the present editors.

College Publications. Mention is made of our college publications, which are issued regularly from most of our institutions of learning, and which, while published particularly in the interest of their special lines of work, and their own social and local societies, nevertheless speak for education in general, and stand for a broader and more thorough qualification for all public servants.

The Christian Herald, so named in 1818 by Robert Foster, was the continuation of The Herald of Gospel Liberty, Mr. Foster succeeding to all the rights of territory and the subscription list held by Rev. Elias Smith. (The Christian Herald now published in New York City has no connection with our denomination.)

The Gospel Palladium was begun at Warren, Rhode Island, in 1823, under the management of Rev. R. Potter. How long this publication continued is not now known.

The Bethlehem Star was published in 1824, at Braintree, Vt., by Rev. E. B. Rollins. The time of its duration was one year.

The Gospel Banner was published in 1826, at Woodstock, Vt., by Jasper Hazen. It was in existence about one year.

The Gospel Luminary was started by Rev. David Millard at West Bloomfield, New York, in 1825. In 1827 the General Christian Conference met at West Bloomfield, New York, and indorsed the paper, and recommended its continuance with certain changes in its form and size, and that its publication be from New York City. The recommendations were carried out, and the paper continued under the direction of the General Christian Conference, and was issued from New York City.

The Christian Messenger was founded by Rev. Barton W. Stone in 1826, at Georgetown, Kentucky. He afterward published it at Jacksonville, Illinois. In an editorial by the distinguished Stone, in a very late issue of the paper, he regrets that Alexander Campbell would not accept the name Christian in preference to Disciples of Christ.

The Christian Palladium was issued at Pittsfield, N. Y., under the editorial management of Rev. Joseph Badger, and I have seen the statement in print, that the next year all the periodicals of the church were consolidated into The Christian Palladium.

From the Memoirs of Rev. Joseph Badger, I copy the following:

"The Gospel Luminary, started at West Bloomfield, in 1825, had been, in 1827, removed to the city of New York, and though ably conducted in the main, the feeling became strong and general in the State of New York, that something more perfectly adapted to the wants of the people could be issued; accordingly the 'Genesee Christian Association,' composed of some of the most experienced ministers and competent men, was organized December, 1831, with a constitution and officers, for the purpose of publishing, purchasing, selling, and distributing such books and publications as the wants of the Christian Connection should, in their judgment, require; also to assist young men in the ministry with libraries and such other means of improvement as might be within their power; and especially did they contemplate, as their first work, the establishment of a periodical at Rochester, N. Y., whose objects were announced to be the vindication and dissemination of gospel truth, the development of the ability of young men in the department of writing, and the promotion of a faith which should be at the same time scriptural, liberal, rational, and evangelical. Of this new monthly periodical, D. Millard, O. E. Morrill, and Asa Chapin, were the Executive Committee, and J. Badger, Editor. A prospectus for this work, called The Christian Palladium, a name sacred to liberty and its defense, was issued by Mr. Badger, January, 1832."

The Christian Luminary appears under the management of Rev. E. B. Rollins, probably at Braintree, Vt., in 1832. This periodical was published for three years.

The Christian Journal was launched by Rev. Elijah Shaw at Exeter, N. H., in 1835. This publication was consolidated with the Christian Herald, and continued as The Journal and Herald for five years.

The Christian Herald was started by ——— at Newberry, Mass., in 1837.

The Christian Union was begun by Elder Matthew Gardner, at Ripley, Ohio, the first issue bearing date May, 1841. At the meeting of the Miami Ohio Conference of the same year, Elder Gardner proposed to transfer the subscription list of the Christian Union to any paper started upon principles in which they could unite. The proposition met with great favor, and at that session an Association was formed and in the year

1843 the Gospel Herald was started by the said Association. This publication bears the following notice:

The Gospel Herald, is published on the first and fifteenth of each month in New Carlisle, Ohio, under the direction of the Ohio Christian Book Association. Rev. Isaac N. Walter, Editor.

From the last page of Vol. 2, I copy the following notice:

The committee has decided to move the establishment to Springfield. Consequently the first number of Volume 3 will be issued from that place.

Later on in the history of the paper, Rev. James Williamson was made editor, and Rev. James W. Marvin assistant.

The Christian was published by Rev. Charles H. Plummer, in Philadelphia, Pa., 1847, of which I have the first volume, bound, in my library.

The Christian Banner was begun at Merom, Ind., by Browning and Buff in 1860.

The Christian Offering was published at Oshawa, Canada.

The Christian Pulpit was published by Dr. N. Summerbell at Cincinnati, Ohio, 1869. This publication was afterward edited by Rev. S. S. Newhouse, D. D., and Rev. T. C. Smith, then president of Union Christian College.

The Christian Herald was established by Rev. D. P. Pike, in 1870, and published at Boston, Mass.

The Living Christian was published at Providence, R. I., with Rev. Daniel Schindler editor, and Revs. D. P. Pike and L. Coffin associate editors, in 1873.

The Christian Age was published by Rev. D. W. Jones of Fort Wayne, Indiana, beginning in 1876. While the paper was not a conference enterprise, the Eel River Conference, to which Elder Jones belonged, promised to encourage and support the undertaking.

The Christian Indicator was published at Kokomo, Ind., by Dr. J. L. Puckett in 1883, which, after having been successively published for short periods of time by Elder P. L. Ryker and Elders Abbott and Winebrenner, was again taken up by its original founder.

The American Christian, a publication in the interest of The American Christian Convention, was begun by Rev. J. J. Summerbell, D. D., in 1890, and issued from the office of the Secretary of the Convention, then located at Philadelphia, Pa. This publication was discontinued in 1895.

The Spirit and Life was begun at Yellow Springs, Ohio, in 1891, with Rev. G. D. Black as editor, and a board of directors to conduct its business affairs. Dr. D. A. Long was editor of this periodical later on in its history.

The Conference Herald and later The Living Christian. In 1892 the Southern Ohio Conference, authorized the establishment of a paper directly in the interest of the conference itself. The first editors and publishers were Revs. C. W. Garoutte and J. F. Burnett. For one year it was published by Rev. C. W. Garoutte and Rev. L. M. Shinkle, and for the remainder of its existence (nine years in all) by J. F. Burnett and L. M. Shinkle. This paper outlived any other local or conference paper known to the writer, except The Christian Vanguard.

The Randolph County Christian was begun by the Randolph County Union of Christian Churches, Randolph County, Indiana, in February, 1899, under the management of Rev. J. R. Cortner, and was continued as such until October of the same year, when it passed into the hands of the Eastern Indiana Christian Conference, and was published as the Eastern Indiana Christian for about four years.

The Christian Messenger was founded by the New England brethren in 1900, and the management was entrusted to an Editorial Board, and was continued until December, 1906.

Civic Liberty. In 1903 Rev. P. S. Sailer began the publication of this paper, at Milroy, Pa.

'Tis true that many of the above named publications were purely local in character and purpose, and some of them were individual enterprises, and that most of them did fade as a flower, but, nevertheless, their very existence showed the will and wish of the Church to give to the world a literature, which would stand for the purest gospel, and the broadest fellowship, and, instead of being criticised for our failures, we should be commended for our efforts. And another fact should be born in mind and that is that the existence of so many periodicals and of such wide diversity in character among us indicates that no one mind can for any great length of time fully and adequately represent us.

In 1831 there was a general meeting of our people in New York City, which was then called the General Christian Conference, but which is now known as The American Christian Convention, at which time and place, the Christian Book Association was formed. At this meeting, a constitution for the Book Association was adopted, which has for its heading the following, copied verbatim from the printed minutes of the general meeting:

*Constitution of the Christian Book Association adopted at the General Christian Conference, holden

The record of the first meeting of the stockholders is an interesting bit of history, which I copy in full from the records.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE CHRISTIAN BOOK ASSOCIATION

The Stockholders of the Christian Book Association met in the Christian Chapel, on Friday, October 7, 1831, and proceeded, agreeable to the Constitution, to elect the Trustees of the said Association. Simon Clough was called to the chair, and Isaac C. Goff chosen secretary.

On the first ballot, the following persons were unanimously elected Trustees, viz.:—Martin Kochensperger, James Taylor, James McKeen, Esq., John Duckworth, John S. Taylor, Simon Clough, William Lane, Frederick Plummer, Isaac C. Goff.

Agreeable to the Constitution of said Association, the Trustees proceeded to elect their officers, as follows, viz.:—Simon Clough, President; Isaac C. Goff, Secretary; F. Plummer, Treasurer.

Proceeded to elect an Executive Committee of five, to carry into effect the business and objects of this Association, when the following persons were unanimously elected, viz.:—Simon Clough, William Lane, Frederick Plummer, Isaac C. Goff, James McKeen, Esq.

Adjourned.

SIMON CLOUGH, President.

ISAAC C. GOFF, Secretary.

It was at this session of the General Christian Conference (not the meeting of the Book Association) that Elders Simon Clough, Frederick Plummer, and Isaac C. Goff, were made a committee to compile a hymn book. Since then, until now, quite a number of hymn books have been compiled and published by the Christians for use in public worship, and while no one of them has been entirely satisfactory to the entire brotherhood, yet each served its purpose well, and there lingers even yet, in the minds of the older brethren, some of the tender words and sweet refrains of the songs and the singers of days forever gone. We had hymn books prior to 1831, in some of which are found hymns setting forth the necessity of observing certain ordinances, as for example, Feet Washing, as the following hymn will show. The hymn is copied from a collection of hymns published by Elder Matthew Gardner, and which had reached its eighth edition in the year 1829.

ON WASHING FEET

Hymn 166. L. M.

John 13: 2, 4, 5, 6-17.

When Jesus Christ was here below,
He taught His people what to do;
And if we would His precepts keep,
We must descend to washing feet.

For on that night He was betray'd,
He for us all a pattern laid;
Soon as His supper He did eat,
He rose and wash'd His brethren's feet.

The Lord who made the earth and sky,
Arose and laid His garment by;
And wash'd their feet, to show that we Should always kind and humble be.

He wash'd them all, to make them clean,
But Judas still was full of sin;
May none of us, like Judas, sell
The Lord for gold, and go to hell.

Peter said, "Lord, it shall not be,
"Thou shalt not stoop to washing me."
O that no Christian here may say
I'm too unworthy to obey.

"You call me Lord, and Master too,
"Then do as I have done to you;
"All my commands and counsels keep,
"And show your love by washing feet.

"Ye shall be happy, if ye know
"And do these things, by faith, below;
"And I'll protect you till you die,
"And then remove you up on high."

AMERICA IN WAR

America's first war was for independence, and was fought against Great Britain from 1775 to 1783. The Colonists objected to taxation without representation, and George III., then King of England, was so determined that the Colonists should bow to English rule, and maintained such influence over the Parliament as to make conciliation impossible, but which made war inevitable. The struggle resulted in the independence of the colonies, the Treaty of Peace being signed in Paris, France, September 3, 1785.

America's second war occurred with Tripoli in 1801, only nine years after the close of the first. The Governor of Tripoli, a town on the north coast of Africa, demanded tribute from American merchant ships for the privilege of sailing the Mediterranean Sea unmolested by pirates. America could not allow such tribute and Tripoli declared war. Bainbridge, Decatur, and Preble, with a then small naval fleet, subdued the pirates, and cleared the bosom of the sea for ships to sail in safety.

America's third war was with Great Britain and was fought in 1812. The cause of this conflict, as set forth in our books, was England's encouragement of Indian outbreaks in America, her interference with American trade, her searching American ships, and the impressment of American sailors. The war resulted in securing our rights on the sea, and protection from governmental interference from other nations.

America's fourth war, known as the first Seminole war, occurred during the years 1817-1818. The Indians of Florida and the negroes belonging to Spain were giving the Americans in that locality unceasing trouble. General Jackson led the expedition against them, completely conquered the country and established peace. A year later, 1819, the United States purchased Florida from Spain at a cost of $5,000,000.

America's fifth war was with the Black Hawk Indians, and is known as the Black Hawk war. It was in 1832, and in the territory which is now Illinois, Iowa, and Wisconsin. It subdued the Indians and made settlement in this territory possible and desirable.

America's sixth war was with the Indians in the territory over which they fought in 1817 and 1818. This war is known as the second Seminole war and lasted from 1835 to 1842. General Zachary Taylor completely subdued the hostile Indians and they were later on sent to western reservations.

America's seventh war began when the sixth came to an end, for 1846 and 1847 were years of war with Mexico, resulting from the disputed boundary line between Mexico and Texas. On February 2, 1848, a treaty of peace was signed by which was ceded to the United States all territory north of the Rio Grande and Gila rivers; and to Mexico $15,000,000 and the payment of $3,000,000 which she owed to Americans. The territory ceded by this treaty includes New Mexico, Nevada, Arizona, Utah, and parts of California.

America's eighth war was the war of 1861-1865, and is known as the Civil war. It was a strife between the North and the South in the United States. The southern people believed in the doctrine of State Sovereignty, which included the right to withdraw from the Union at will and also to maintain slavery within its borders. The war resulted in the preservation of the Union and the abolition of human slavery.

America's ninth war was in 1898, when she clashed with Spain over her cruel treatment and unjust rule in Cuba. When the struggle ended Spain was defeated and her control of Cuba at an end. She ceded to the United States, Porto Rico and Guam, Porto Rico attaining her independence under United States protection May, 1902. The United States government purchased from Spain the Phillippine Islands, paying therefor $20,000,000.

America's tenth war was with Germany and the powers associated with her and involved the United States from February 23, 1917, to November 11, 1918. For full and accurate history of this war the reader is cited to the article by Rev. O. W. Powers, D. D., in The Christian Annual for 1918.

On May 7, 1915, the steamer Lusitania was sunk by a German submarine without warning, causing the death of one thousand one hundred and fifty persons, of whom one hundred and fourteen were Americans.

On January 31, 1917, Germany announced "unrestricted submarine warfare" and prescribed the conditions under which one American ship a week might go to Falmouth, England, and return. From the article by Doctor Powers, referred to, the following is copied:

On February twenty-third, 1917, the United States severed diplomatic relations with Germany. April second, having called the Congress in special session, the President advised it that the course of the Imperial German Government was "in fact nothing less than war against the government and people of the United States." April fourth, the Senate of the United States declared a state of war to exist between the United States and the Imperial German Government, and on April sixth, the Senate resolution was passed by the House of Representatives and signed by the President. The United States was at war.

On November 11, 1918, an armistice was signed, which in the last analysis meant the surrender of the Central Powers.

ITEMS

Within the time of this last war, America trained, equipped, and transported to the battle front about two and a quarter millions of men.

There was one chaplain to each 1,200 men.

The American Bible Society, at the request of the National War Work Council of the Y. M. C. A., gave over 1,000,000 khaki pocket Testaments, through them, for distribution to the men of the Army and Navy—the largest single gift of Scriptures ever made so far as we know. It is co-operating now with the National War Work Council in supplying a second million of English Testaments, the Y. M. C. A. bearing the larger share of the financial responsibility for this edition, since the American Bible Society bore the full burden of the first million. The Society is also publishing pocket Testaments in French, Italian, Russian, Modern Greek, Polish, Portuguese, Roumanian, Spanish, and Yiddish, for the men of our forces who use these languages.

During the period of active hostilities—April 6, 1917, to November 11, 1918—the Society has issued 4,086,239 volumes for the Army and Navy. Half a million were the Gospel of Mark in French and English, parallel columns, which were very eagerly taken by the men in France or going there; and 2,131,113 were pocket Testaments.

The American Bible Society, as almoner of the Christian public, and especially of the American Sunday-school children, through the World's Sunday-school Association, supplied between the opening of the war, in 1914, and the close of 1917, to the soldiers on both sides approximately 1,500,000 Bibles.

The British and Foreign Bible Society distributed between August, 1914, and January 1, 1918, 7,000,000 Bibles, Testaments, and portions, some of them going to her bitterest enemies.

The National Bible Society, of Scotland, distributed between August, 1914, and December, 1916, 3,000,000.

The American Bible Society, during twelve months of war in which America was actually engaged, issued and distributed in special binding, 2,231,831 Bibles, Testaments, and portions, of which over one-half have been New Testaments.

The American, the British, and the Scottish Bible Societies, unitedly distributed between August, 1914, and April, 1918, 5,000,000 copies of the Word.

The Bibles and portions, as above mentioned, were printed in 81 different languages.

Red Cross work was no less commendable or extensive, and is worthy to rank with the best work done for the soldiers of the war by any agency employed. The records of the work done reveal the following facts concerning the money raised and expended. There is no record, there can be no record of the moral influence exerted by this society, and of the tender ministries in service it rendered in hospital, on the battle-field, and everywhere else where suffering existed. But the figures will show something of the interest taken and the largeness of the work:

OUR CHAPLAINS

(See Pages Sixteen and Seventeen)

Among the many commendable things resulting from the world war should be mentioned the emphasis our government laid upon Christianity, and its recognition of the Church.

Our government did not recognize denominations except to the extent of giving each one a fair chance and an opportunity to assume its full share of responsibility in providing for itself both in the army and navy. It did give large place to the importance of the Church of Jesus Christ and the value of her ministry. When the United States entered the war there was one chaplain to a military unit of 1,200 men. Soon afterward a military unit was raised to 3,600 men. Then the church asked that the number of chaplains be proportionately increased and it was done. The General War Time Commission, through which the activities of the Church were directed, did not work in the interest of denominations, but did their work in the interest of those things which were common to all, particularly to secure an increased number of chaplains; providing adequately for all regiments and making it possible to assign chaplains to small detached bodies of troops; to urge the responsibility of the government to provide equipment; to secure provision for training chaplains; to secure the proper organization and status of chaplains and to see that the boys in camp and in trench were not without the consolation and inspiration of religious service. It may be safely asserted that both the War and Navy Departments of our government placed as much emphasis upon religion and spiritual matters as upon food, physical welfare, and material things. Very early in the war period the Executive Board of The American Christian Convention appointed President W. A. Harper, Elon College, N. C., Rev. Omer S. Thomas, Dayton, Ohio, and J. F. Burnett, Dayton, Ohio, a committee to recommend chaplains for service in the U. S. A. and Navy, and later on appointed

The Christian Church, though not furnishing a large number of chaplains, furnished splendidly good ones, and she never need be ashamed of the sacrifice they made and the service they rendered. They are:

Rev. William A. Freeman, of Covington, Ohio, enlisted and was directed to the Chaplains' Training School, but for physical reasons did not continue in service. Rev. H. L. Bailey, of Piqua, Ohio, also enlisted and entered the Training School, but the signing of the armistice terminated his relation to the army. Rev. J. C. Stuart, of Huntersville, N. C., was recommended and approved, but for reasons satisfactory to himself and the government did not accept his commission. Others were anxious to enlist and applications were considered and properly disposed of. Rev. W. E. Ewing, of the Ohio Eastern Conference, was recommended about the time the armistice was signed.

The War Work Commission made an appeal for funds, and a more generous response could not have been expected. Up to December 31, 1918, the contributions to this fund aggregated $2,495.93. To this amount should be added more than a hundred dollars which came in response to an appeal from the committee to recommend chaplains. Of this amount, $200.00 went to the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America on the expense incurred in securing necessary legislation to increase the number of chaplains, and $300.00 went to the General War Time Commission as a small part toward the expense and uses of money by the commission.

A communion set, a Corona typewriter, and enough cash to equal one hundred dollars, were given to each of our chaplains, and the remainder is yet to be distributed as circumstances may demand and the War Work Commission approve.

From the time the United States entered the war to November 20, 1918, the following number of chaplains had been commissioned:

United States Army—Roman Catholics	562
Protestants	1281

Included in the Protestants are three Christian Scientists and fourteen Jews, reducing the actual number of Protestants to 1,264.

United States Navy—Roman Catholics	29
Protestants	122

During the period of active hostilities—April 6, 1917, to November 11, 1918—The American Bible Society issued 4,086,239 volumes for our Army and Navy. Half a million were the Gospel of Mark in French and English, parallel columns, which were very eagerly taken by the men in France or going there; and 2,131,113 were pocket Testaments.

At the request of the National War Work Council of the Y. M. C. OUR WAR Y. M. C. A.

Neither The Christian Annual nor the War Work Commission has any official record of the number of War Y. M. C. A. men who served in the cantonments or went overseas, but the Christian Annual does know that Rev. H. G. Rowe, of the Central Illinois Conference, went overseas and that Hermon

THE GREAT VICTORY

BY REV. OLIVER W. POWERS, D. D.

The close of the year 1917 found nearly all the nations of the world engaged in a gigantic struggle for supremacy, with the United States massing her resources for a decisive part in the struggle. The public sentiment of the nation recognized but one possible outcome of our entrance into the conflict—victory. Of the eventual result there was in the hearts of the people not the shadow of a doubt. But the time and effort necessary to bring it to pass, no one could estimate. "Force without limit," and time enough to accomplish the purpose, if it took years, was the determination of the nation.

On December 7, 1917, Congress declared a state of war to exist with Austria-Hungary. December 8, Ecuador severed diplomatic relations with Germany. April 22, 1918, Guatamala declared war against Germany, Nicaragua on May 7, Haiti on July 15, and Honduras on July 19.

THE COLLAPSE OF RUSSIA

On March 15, 1917, the Czar Nicholas of Russia was forced to abdicate. A provisional government was formed, which declared its adherence to the allied cause, and attempted to consolidate the military forces for the national defense. But the radical elements of the revolution soon gained control, and at the same time the army began to disintegrate. Germany pushed her advantage, and on March 2, 1918, the Russian representatives signed the infamous "Brest-Litovsk Treaty," which virtually put an end to Russian resistance to the Central Empires. Roumania, which had entered the war in the expectation of Russian aid, was rendered helpless, and signed a dictated peace. Russia, breaking up into separate portions, became an easy prey to German intrigue, or open to German military occupation, and Germany exulted in the opening of a "New road to the East."

THE NEW GERMAN OFFENSIVE

Stung by the preparations of America, and encouraged by successes in the East, and on the Italian front, Germany now prepared for a supreme effort to force a decision in France, before the new strength from America could become effective. The great offensive was launched against the British front in March, and in the succeeding months extended to the entire line. It reached its farthest point toward Paris, at Chateau-Thierry, the middle of July, where it was halted by the French and Americans, who drove the Germans back across the Marne. From this time the great wave receded. It was forced back to the famous "Hindenburg Line," which was soon broken. The first American Army wiped out the German salient of St. Mihiel, which for four years had been a menace to the French lines. Allied successes were attained everywhere, and affairs rapidly approached a crisis.

On July 1, the Secretary of War had reported to the President that more than one million American soldiers were in France. They were being sent over at the rate of nearly three hundred thousand a month, while the training camps were preparing to send millions more. At the close of the war more than two million Americans were overseas.

THE FINAL DRIVES

The war in the East had gone on almost unobserved in the face of the tremendous struggles in the West; but the British troops made steady progress in undermining the Turkish power. In Mesopotamia, Bagdad was taken, and the Turkish forces completely overcame; while in September Palestine was conquered, Jerusalem and Damascus were occupied, and the last remnant of the Sultan's armies surrendered to the British forces.

The allied armies on the Salonica front advanced against the Bulgarian positions early in September; and on September 29, unable to resist longer, Bulgaria surrendered unconditionally, making the first break in the alliance of the Central Empires.

October 31, Turkey announced her unconditional surrender, and opened the Dardanelles to the allied fleets.

Late in October an advance was ordered on the Italian front, resulting in the speedy occupation of nearly all the territory known as "Italia Irredenta," the utter rout of the Austro-Hungarian armies, and the surrender of Austria-Hungary, an armistice being signed on November 3.

On November 11, deserted by all her allies, her armies on the verge of destruction, with the American troops breaking thorough the last strong front in the Argonne forest and occupying Sedan, the representatives of the German High Command signed an armistice at the dictation of General Foch, and the war was over.

THE FRUITS OF VICTORY

One of the first results of the victory was seen in the collapse of autocracy, as represented by the heads of the monarchical governments. The Kaiser fled to Holland when the armistice was signed, and a German Republic was proclaimed. The Czar Ferdinand of Bulgaria abdicated, quickly followed by his son Boris. The Emperor Karl of Austria-Hungary surrendered his crown. The minor potentates of Germany made haste to give the reins of power into the hands of the people.

A second result was the emergence of new nationalities, which had already begun to be recognized by the allied powers. Bohemia, Moravia, and Slovakia united to form the "Czecho-Slovak Republic." Croatia, Serbia, and probably Montenegro, become elements of a Southern Slav Confederacy. Poland, rent apart by her autocratic neighbors, and held in subjection for more than a hundred years, has declared her freedom and unity. Out of the crumbling Russian Empire, it seems that Finland at least will recover her ancient freedom. But the rest of that mighty aggregation is the problem and peril of Europe.

THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS

As the year draws to a close the representatives of the allied nations are hurrying to Versailles, to arrange for the final settlement of the issues involved in the gigantic struggle. The President of the United States, breaking all precedent, has left his country during his term of office, to present in person to the assembled diplomats his plea for a world union, which shall make future wars impossible. On the success of his mission, millions hang their hopes of the emergence of order from the world chaos through which we have been plunging. The part of America in creating the new world order is of greater significance than her part in the great conflict. The war to end war is over. The fight for permanent peace has just begun.

Counting some of the conference work that the Home Mission Department has been doing during the last year, we have aided about thirty-six points, besides cooperating with the interdenominational movements such as the Missionary Educational Movement and the Home Missions Council. For the sake of emphasis we will suppose that all the home mission points were just one big church. We have paid to the pastor of that church a very small salary in comparison to the congregation. He has preached every Sunday to one thousand, six hundred and fifty-four people, he has received three hundred and forty-four people into the church, besides making innumerable calls and looking after an enormous lot of business like church debts and discouraging conditions.

It is not possible to measure the influence of this pastor, because he has been able to make calls into so many sections of the country and to see and help in so many places of need where the influence counts for so much. He has gone into the depths of the western forests, into the camps of the soldiers, into the homes of the foreigners of the city and into their saloons even, and into hundreds of other homes to carry the good news and cheerful encouragement and comfort. Think of it, during the year he has made eight thousand five hundred and fifty calls. Think of all that that must have meant to the things of which no one ever has any statistics to report.

For all this work the Mission Board has paid this missionary a salary of $9,125.00. There has, of course, had to be much other money paid out for the things which have to be had to back up the work of the missionary, so that about fourteen thousand dollars were paid out for all.

Now the Mission Board is planning to do more than just have this missionary in the field. It has been demonstrated that we are not giving him salary enough nor are we giving him the equipment that he really ought to have.

We are planning to make a continuous call to the people of our Church for the Church Extension Fund. There are so many places where there is a need for parsonages that we must be aroused to the need and make the Extension Fund available to scores of churches that they may be encouraged to build parsonages. Our Church will never reach the standard of efficiency which should be reached until we have more settled pastors. Home Missions wants to aid the churches in getting parsonages. To aid in this campaign for equipment the Secretary has worked with the committee in preparing blanks to be used by the conferences in obtaining their statistics. We have a series of questions in those blanks which conference officers should insist on having filled out. If we make a great deal out of reports at the conference sessions we will be able to get a great deal of education and then finally action. Make every preacher say every year whether he would be willing to move to the field. Make every church without a parsonage say every year whether they are willing to consider building a parsonage. After a while they will get the feeling that the old excuse is invalid and they will try to make a different answer. Let the conferences make much of their conference reports.

The Forward Movement is to mean much to the Home Mission work of our Church. When we have the impetus of the money that is to bring to us and all that will come of interest and encouragement and enthusiasm with the money it will mean a possibility to do greater things than we have ever done in the home mission field. With the Forward Movement campaign you are going to put on in your church be sure to plan for a strong emphasis to be made on the home mission end of it.

Last, I want to say that the Executive Board of The American Christian Convention has put its stamp of approval on the every-member-canvass by arranging to have a simultaneous canvass in all of the churches. We are to boom things at that time and we must have the whole-hearted cooperation of every pastor of the Christian Church.

The slogan is, As much for others as for ourselves. The plan must be so worked that every member of every family in the churches will give something to missions.

OUR FOREIGN WORK IN WAR TIME

All Christian work has been conducted under difficulty the past year, and foreign missions have had their full share of trials. Prices have been inflated, foreign exchange has been unfavorable, missionaries and native workers have been drafted into the army or war work, and the candidates for missionary appointment are far from sufficient in number to meet the demand. Our missions have suffered much less than many others have.

The figures for Porto Rico are a year old. A large part of the work of the Japan Mission is not covered in this tabulation. Dr. Woodworth, Mr. Fry, and Mr. Garman all do regular school work; there are Christian Endeavor, Y. M. C. A., and Y. W. C. A. organizations; and Japanese pastors also conduct a variety of activities not indicated above. Mr. Barrett has had several assistants and co-laborers in training in Porto Rico, but he mentions that nineteen young men have been taken from our work into the army.

To meet the increased expense, we have increased the appropriations for both fields during the year.

The Japan Mission has finally purchased land and building at Dogenzaka, paying therefor the sum of $8,000. This will prove ample for school, church, parsonage, and other purposes as soon as necessary buildings have been erected. Mr. Garman is able to continue the kindergarten in the present building. Plans for a school building have been drafted, and bids invited from contractors. The matter rests there now, although we hope erection of building may begin soon.

Our property holdings in Japan now amount to $30,100.

A Forward Movement is already in operation in the Japan Christian Conference, by which our brethren seek to double church attendance, church membership, and church contributions within four and a half years.

As these words are written, Rev. and Mrs. A. D. Woodworth, of Tokyo, are on their way home for furlough, and should reach America the middle of December.

In Porto Rico we have already seen good results from the purchase of the mission home, although we had to borrow money to make payments for it. Friends of the cause will undoubtedly see that we have means to clear off this indebtedness. The value of our property in Porto Rico is now about $21,000.

War conditions brought the work nearly to a standstill. Three pastors are still at their posts, working almost single handed. However, all Porto Rico has most loyally assisted in war work, and our brethren there have been fully occupied in helping as they could.

We have $1,143 on hand for the Santa Isabel chapel, probably one-third of the sum needed, and hope to begin building during the year.

Earthquake has wrought havoc in the western section of Porto Rico, but the damage farther east was not so great. One room of our mission home will need repair. The tower of the Ponce church was ruined and had to be torn down. To replace this tower in a manner to preclude another such loss will involve a considerable expense. Plans have not yet been made. Salinas chapel also suffered slight damage.

Miss Olive G. Williams, of Ponce, came home last spring for a rest, and returned to her work in November.

Financially the past year has been our best, the receipts being as follows:

General Fund	$24,901.26
Borrowed for General Work	1,000.00
Armenian and Syrian Relief	902.25
C. E. Missionary Fund	95.00

Never has the outlook here at home been so encouraging for our foreign missions. More of our people than ever are realizing our opportunity and responsibility, and more really have a vital interest in the growth of the Kingdom.

THE MISSION BOARD'S ASSETS

How conservatively the missionary work of the Christian Church has been conducted has been told each year in the annual reports that have been published. However, few people realize how the tangible assets of the Board have multiplied. The following figures will help to grasp this point:

The assets of the Mission Board at the close of the fiscal year are as follows:

Home Missions:

Permanent Fund	$10,374.09

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Rev. William G. Sargent, B. A., D. D., Secretary

EDUCATIONAL BOARD

Rev. William Garbutt Sargent, B. A., D. D., Providence, R. I.—Chairman.
Rev. Hugh A. Smith, Ph. D., D. D., Warren, Indiana—Clerk.
Rev. W. T. Walters, M. A., D. D., Winchester, Virginia.
Rev. John A. Stover, M. A., Avon, Illinois.

The unexpected call for a report of the condition of our educational work, for the past year, permits the Secretary to give little of the information such a report should embody. The sudden call for young men of college age to enter the army and navy of the country, and the creation, almost over night, of the S. A. T. C., with all needed readjustments, demanded instant and radical action on the part of our college authorities to meet the tide of young men which flowed to those schools that had instituted, under government supervision, military and naval training, and the decrease in numbers at the schools that could not muster sufficiently large numbers of young men to secure a government instructor. To make the difficulty more serious, many of the instructors were called into the service, or volunteered for the purpose, and our colleges have been confronted with the necessity of replenishing their depleted staffs with such aid as was available—in many cases having to fill the vacancies with women teachers, so that women probably predominate in our faculties, to-day. Then, too, curricula had to be transformed, conforming to military necessities. Such changes have made the work of our colleges very difficult for the last few months.

Hardly, however, had they readjusted themselves, at great pains, to the mobilizing of all the young manhood of the nation, than the need passed away, and, with the armistice, the whole program began to undo itself. To that end our colleges that had instituted Army Corps are now addressing themselves. By the end of 1918 the work will probably be well on the way to completion, if not quite finished, and as normal conditions as may succeed world peace come again to our institutions.

Defiance and Elon have been particularly affected. The attendance has increased and, in the case of the former, overrun the capacity of the college, students being turned away for lack of accommodation as also on account of the readjustment of courses. Doubtless some of these students will leave the colleges and return to their former occupation, when they are free to act, and the national treasury refuses to pay the bills. Some will have secured a taste for college life that will demand more, and will complete their courses. That much of good will, at least, be accomplished.

The influenza epidemic affected some of our colleges and schools, particularly Elon and Starkey. The resources of these institutions were taxed to the full to care for the sick and in preventive measures. The year's work was greatly retarded by the epidemic. All our schools were fortunate to live through it as they did. In each case the college management is to be credited with excellent handling of the situation.

The Educational Board had its annual meeting at Elon College in the month of January, the presence of one of the members in the South making possible such an arrangement. Not only was all business coming up for its consideration transacted at the time, but the members of the Board sought to make their visit of worth to the institution, through addresses, series of lectures, and contact with the student body and faculty. In going to one of our educational institutions for an annual meeting the Board established a precedent we trust will be followed in the future. It is a custom with other denominations to send representatives, annually, to all, or most of their schools, and so keep the school in touch with denominational representatives outside of the college board. The annual meeting of the Board affords an opportunity to our denomination to establish a like contact between these two bodies and so aid in the development of our educational work.

The Board visited Franklinton while south, and were more than gratified to see the evidences of growth there under the supervision of the Board of Control and the leadership of President Hendershot. Since our visitation, Bishop cottage has been completed, and occupied by the president, and in future will afford a fine home for the president and comfort to denominational representatives who may visit the school.

Looking over the whole field, the Secretary is assured educational aim and purpose have developed during the last few years. If plans have been disarranged by war conditions during the last year and a half, the weight of influence has been on the side of affording our young men and women a larger degree of opportunity for educational equipment that will fit them for future leadership. Gradually the mind of the church is grasping the demand of the time for educated leadership and the conferences are responding, as they have not done in the past. This is most hopeful.

As much cannot be said, however, for our young men. Taking into account war conditions we hardly seem warranted in assuming such abnormal times are entirely responsible for the diminution in the number of young men presenting themselves for the ministry. The last reports show a decrease of 22%. That this condition is general only magnifies the difficulty. This serious condition must be traced back to the home and the church. Success has been spelled too often g-o-l-d. The emphasis laid on material prosperity by fathers and mothers and the organized body of Christ (in the latter case, probably, quite unconsciously) has turned the mind of the boy to houses and lands, or even intellectual pursuits, for their immediate significance. Emphasis has not been laid on service and life's worth reckoned in terms of contribution.

To assist our churches to better meet this serious need they were asked to observe "Educational Week," during the month of February, with a view of setting before the denomination the call of the Christian ministry, particularly, and specific Christian service, generally, upon the young men and women of our time. How far that was observed the Secretary is not aware. If the observance of this special week is continued it is hoped more of our churches will cooperate in making it a clarion call to our youth, facing life's vocation, assisting them to decide for definite Christian service.

The total receipts of the department from December 1, 1917, to December 1, 1918, were $2,675.38. Of this amount $1,950.00 was dispersed to our colleges and Council of Educational Boards. The expenses, $426.24, included Annual Call, Publicity Work, Annual Meeting of the Board, Secretary's remuneration, and various incidentals. Balance on hand December 1, $299.14.

The Secretary has urged the colleges and schools to send items of interest to the Educational Column of The Herald of Gospel Liberty, and until recently the amount of matter contributed has overrun the space allotted the Educational Department by the Publishing Board. The Secretary has assumed, with the narrowing of space, due to diminishing the size of the paper, news directly from our schools and colleges would be of greater benefit to our work than personal contributions.

DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR BOARD

W. A. Harper, M. A., LL. D., Elon College, N. C.
 Rev. C. H. Rowland, D. D., Franklin, Va.
 Rev. E. A. Watkins, D. D., Lima, Ohio.
 Rev. J. C. DeRemer, Columbus Grove, Ohio.
 Rev. R. G. English, M. A., B. D., Amesbury, Mass.

The war was a great opportunity for Christian Endeavor. The Universal Army of Patriotic Service was a modern crusade based on sound principles and did its part to break the morale of the Kaiser's minions. More than three hundred joined this Christian army through the Secretary's office, and many times that number of our young people must have joined its ranks through the interdenominational channels. Three of our societies, at least, were 100% patriotic.

Our Standardization contest began September 1, 1918, and was entered by the following societies: Elon College, N. C.; Henderson, N. C.; Burlington, N. C.; Greensboro, N. C.; Goshen, Ind.; Jireh, Wyo.; Palmer College, Mo.; North Hampton, N. H.; Advance, Ind.; Greenville, Ohio; Coshocton, Ohio; Freehold, N. Y.; New Bedford, Mass.; Newmarket, Ont.; Springboro, Pa.; Plainville, N. Y.; Mansfield, Ill.; Amesbury, Mass.; Dayton, First Church, Ohio; North Clayton, Ohio; Albany, N. Y.; Columbus, Ga.; N. Shrewsbury, Vt.; Dayton, Walnut Hills, Ohio; Warfordsburg, Pa.; Franklin, Va.

On April 29, when The American Christian Convention meets in Conneaut, Ohio, due recognition will be given the societies which have "excelled" and "superioried" in this contest.

We have made sixty-nine Christian Endeavor experts this year, from Canada to South Georgia and from Kansas to Maine.

A FINAL REMARK

No, our Christian Endeavor work is not dead and it ought not to die. Our young people need direction and supervision. The present Secretary cannot give them what they must have if they are to do the King's work in becoming fashion. He cannot do it, because he has other duties which he must not neglect. No other man can do it and fill another position at the same time. Every Secretary who has endeavored to serve our Christian Endeavor Department with snatches of time has felt the inadequacy of his accomplishment because of the paucity of his time devoted to the work. The hope of the Church is in the young people, and we must reach them while they are young. We must, therefore, have a Secretary giving his entire time to directing, supervising, inspiring the lives of our young people.

FOR THE FUTURE

The khaki and blue clad boys are soon to be home. They have learned how to sacrifice and serve. When they return, let us approach each one of them for Christian service. The Church needs workers as never before and we have the plan, we Endeavorers have, the life-work recruiting department of our Christian Endeavor. Let's pray and let's work for life-work recruits.

The business of The Christian Publishing Association has been greatly handicapped by war conditions which have prevailed the past fiscal year, ending September 30, 1918.

The excessive cost of all printing materials and the high cost of all labor made it almost impossible to more than meet expenses. The increase in the subscription price of The Herald of Gospel Liberty, together with the criticism of the editorial policy of the paper have decreased its circulation. This decrease is to be deplored and is a great hindrance to the progress of our Church. If our Church is to profit by the opportunity for larger usefulness now presented in world conditions, we must stop our bickerings and efforts at personal aggrandizement and give our energies to the important work of organizing all our forces for the Forward Movement of the Christian Church. God cannot prosper our Church while we are giving ourselves over to contentions as to who shall have first place in "the Kingdom." Christ rebuked His disciples for such contentions and the whole Church should rebuke those who are now or hereafter may be so engaged.

On the thirtieth of September, the close of the last fiscal year, the subscriptions to The Herald of Gospel Liberty were only about 4,300. Over 600 subscribers failed to pay in advance before November 1, 1918, and under Government orders had to be dropped from our subscription list. Our actual paid list November 1, 1918, is less than 3,500.

It is universally admitted that any great organization, whether political, fraternal, or religious, must have a publication or organ of publicity. There must be a means of publicity that all interested alike and in the same cause may proceed in unison and upon definite outlines.

The necessity needs no argument. What is needed in our Church is an enthusiasm to join the colors and go forward.

Our Sunday-school literature is of supreme importance in unifying our efforts to build up our Church through our Sunday-schools. Our quarterlies and Sunday-school papers have had a liberal support, but should have the universal support of our schools. No Sunday-school is serving the church at its best that refuses to take our own publications.

The average number of Bible Class quarterlies printed the first two quarters of 1918 was 40,500 copies.

The average number of Intermediate Quarterlies printed the first two quarters of 1918 was 17,750.

The average number of Junior Quarterlies printed the first two quarters of 1918 was 11,000.

The total average of the quarterlies published the first two quarters of 1918 was 69,200.

We see from these figures that the Sunday-school literature is the best medium we now have of reaching the people who are interested in the Christian Church.

The Sunday School Herald and Junior Herald present a general class of Sunday-school literature; these papers are read very largely by the same people that use the quarterlies, but they, no doubt, reach many who do not, but how many more we have no means of knowing.

The Sunday School Herald for the first two quarters of 1918 had a weekly circulation of 11,615 and the Junior Herald for the same period had a weekly circulation of 8,154, making a total weekly circulation of 19,769.

The Teachers and Officers Journal is a most valuable journal for officers and teachers of the Sunday-school. This is a new publication and should be carefully read by every officer and teacher. It should be studied by superintendents and its suggestions put into practice in our schools. It is not fully appreciated because not carefully read by officers and teachers. Every school should have a copy for each of its officers and teachers and the superintendent should see to it that it is carefully studied and discussed each month by them. The Journal has not yet paid expenses of publication, the losses the past year amounting to $304.31. Our Sunday-schools should see to it that the present year it shall at least pay its way.

The net gain from the business of the Association is only $2,386.44. The only part of our business that we can really be proud of its profits, is the job department, which shows a gain of $2,074.08.

In this department of our business the increase in cost of production could be charged to the customer, but in the general publications of the House this could not be done. Subscription prices cannot well be changed each month.

The Christian Publishing Association wishes to thank all those of the brotherhood who have loyally supported our publishing interests and will appreciate the patronage of all the Church and the public generally.

THE BUREAU OF EVANGELISM AND SOCIAL SERVICE

OLIVER W. POWERS, SECRETARY

The activities of the Bureau for the closing year of the quadrennium have been limited to the work of the Secretary and the members of the three commissions, on Evangelism, Social Service, and Country Church.

Early in the year the Secretary, through questionnaires addressed to the members of the commissions, began the preparation of reports on the general need of emphasizing work in these directions, and on the need and possibility of a more definite policy and program, with a consideration of proper standards and methods, as related to our own people. The members responded with reasonable promptness, some sending in very full answers and most excellent and thoughtful suggestions. These replies were carefully studied by the Secretary, duplicate matter omitted, and the whole combined and put into convenient form for study.

Since the Executive Board of the Convention had appointed new commissions on these subjects, no attempt was made to present reports to the Convention, but the results of the studies by the Bureau were turned over to the chairmen of the new commissions for such use as they chose to make of them.

At the request of the Seaside Chautauqua and School of Methods, the Secretary prepared three lectures on the Country Church, which were delivered at the session of 1918 at Virginia Beach. The subjects were:

1. The Problem of the Rural Church.
2. Resources of the Rural Church.
3. Rural Church Ideals.

The Secretary also prepared three lectures on Evangelism for the Summer School at Craigville, Mass. The subjects were:

1. The Evangelistic Opportunity.
2. The Evangelistic Objective.
3. Evangelistic Methods.

In addition to these, addresses were given on "The Union of Christian Forces" and "The Work of the Church in War Time."

A number of these lectures and addresses were afterward given at various churches and conferences.

The preparation of these lectures and addresses, and the necessary correspondence of the Bureau, occupied the available time of the Secretary during the year. On account of the approaching session of The American Christian Convention, when it was expected that the Bureau would be reorganized, and given a more permanent form, no plans were made reaching beyond the Convention session. The work has demonstrated its value, and is worthy of continuance under the best conditions that can be devised by the Convention.

FORWARD MOVEMENT OF THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH

By Rev. Warren H. Denison, D. D., Superintendent

THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH PROGRAM

The Forward Movement program is a denomination-wide program, with five points, five fundamentals in the Christian life and in church activity. During the campaign every convention, every conference, every institute, every church, every association, is asked to build its program around these five fundamental points and thus carry home to every member of our brotherhood the deep conviction of their importance, of his relation to them, and the obligation that rests upon him as a Christian.

The Five Fundamentals of the Campaign

Devotion—intensifying the devotional and spiritual life of the whole Church by private prayer, family altar, Bible-reading, signing prayer covenants, doubling the prayer-meeting attendance, organizing new prayer-meetings, spiritual preaching, table blessing, devotional public worship, using every agency that will build up the devotional and spiritual life of old and young.

Evangelism—50,000 souls for Christ during the campaign, Sunday-school evangelism, recruits for the ministry, mission fields, and other lines of Christian service; ten per cent. net gain in members in each church each year; training the membership in soul-winning, every Christian a soul-winner, definite prayer lists, persistent, prayerful all-the-year campaign for others, evangelistic committee in every church and conference, general, personal, pastoral, lay, vocational evangelism, until we become a thoroughly evangelistic people. Every church organized for soul-winning.

Religious Education—a program of religious education in every church, teacher-training, mission study, Christian Endeavor expert, pastor's classes for training, summer conferences, group institutes, inspiring our youth to go to our own colleges, promoting Christian unity, instruct and train new members and the present membership with a view to the best Christian service, interdenominational conventions, better equipment, new Sunday-schools and Christian Endeavor societies, training for Christian leadership and efficiency.

Missions—doubling our present home and foreign mission work, missionary intercession, worthy missionary goals and standards, a deep missionary spirit in all our churches, missionary methods, keeping the home fires burning and the home bases strong, providing equipment for our workers. We must deal in a truly worthy way with the completely changed world situation. This is pre-eminently the missionary hour of all history. If we get a missionary vision and enter upon a task now in these strategic hours, it will shape and bring new life to our Christian Church. May our Board plan great constructive programs in these wonderful hours.

Benevolence—raising a half-million dollars for the work of our beloved Church and its general enterprises, one-half to be used for immediate development of the work, one-half for an endowment fund, the income from which is to be used each year for increasing the work. No dollar of the half-million is to be used for the expenses of the campaign. The campaign fund is to be given by private individuals who believe heartily in its need and who see its value. One hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars each for home and foreign missions, $100,000 for Education, $75,000 for The American Christian Convention, $25,000 each for Sunday-schools, Christian Endeavor, Publishing, each fund to be used by its respective board.

This program of our Forward Movement is our answer to God's trumpet call to the Christian Church to face the world's great need as well as our own. It is our testing time. Can He depend on us, can He depend on you? Shall we not one and all dedicate ourselves anew to Him and to our Church, to this church program of saving and serving men, furnishing life and treasure to back it up? God helping us, we shall.

Mr. Hermon Eldredge, Religious Education Secretary, will be associated with the Superintendent actively as soon as he may be released from the Army Y. M. C. A., where he has been giving such splendid service.

HEARTY CO-OPERATION

This is to be one of the secrets of our success—every church, every pastor, every conference, every institute, every church official, every conference officer, every board, every Sunday-school, every missionary society, every institution and agency in our Church, every individual member of the Church—all together—this one thing we do—carry out this program—go over the top—for the Kingdom's sake and for our church's sake.

THINGS TO THINK ABOUT

Five points gained will mean five-fold more life.

A larger job will make a larger church.

The Forward Movement moves forward.

My money is mine only in trust.

Go forward and live, or backward and die.

We must have fifty educated, trained life recruits every year.

A million non-Christian souls must find Christ by our help.

10% net increase in church membership each year.

Power through prayer.

What was efficient yesterday will fail to-morrow.

50,000 souls for Christ in this campaign.

Segregated sectarianism is dead and its further exploitation is a menace to the Kingdom of God.

The missionary hour of history has struck.

PRESSLEY E. ZARTMANN,
Music Director

April 20, 1919, has been designated as Chautauqua Day, when throughout our whole brotherhood our pastors, Sunday-school superintendents, and all who have ever attended the Chautauqua are kindly and urgently requested to announce and emphasize its importance.

One dollar admits one to the entire week of the Chautauqua session. When the permanent guarantee fund reaches $1,200, all the sessions will be free to our own people.

The strong program, the variety of church work offered, the ability and note of the speakers, the large, cool auditorium, the delightful sea breezes, the Christian fellowship, the reasonable cost, the delightful bathing in old ocean, the chance for rest and recuperation, the vision and training given for Christian leadership, the splendid spiritual uplift, the privilege to meet unhurriedly our church leaders, the many attractions around Norfolk and Hampton Roads, the large government works, the young people's conferences, are some of the reasons why you should plan now to go to the next session.

Our churches and schools in every section should plan now to send one or more representatives and pay all or part of the cost. It will be worth while to your church and school.

NEW YORK EASTERN CONFERENCE—1818-1918

BY REV. JOHN BOWDISH GOVE
Conference Secretary and Field-worker

The New York Eastern Christian Conference was one hundred years old on September 28, 1918, but celebrated the event in connection with the regular session of the conference at Hartwick, N. Y., June 5-9, 1918. The prearranged program was carried out in full, save that a severe storm made it unwise to attempt the trip to the spot, about five miles distant, where the Conference was organized in 1818. There is a gardener's fable that the Agave Americana or Century Plant grows slowly for a hundred years, bursts into one riot of bloom and dies. But this Century Plant has borne fragrant flowers and yielded luscious fruit each year since its planting, and bids fair to do so for centuries to come. I bring you a few choice blossoms which I have found pressed in the old minute books.

The officers of the first four sessions were as follows: 1818, Samuel P. Allen, "Chief Speaker;" John Ross, "Scribe." 1819, Samuel P. Allen, "Chief Speaker;" Joseph Badger, "Scribe." 1820, Samuel P. Allen, "Moderator;" Joseph Badger, "Clerk." 1821, Jabez King, "Chief Speaker;" John Spore, Jr., "Secretary."

The very introduction breathes a courageous spirit and a denominational loyalty uncommon in these degenerate days. They dared to say, "The Elders and brethren of the Christian denomination in the State of New York, having for several years obviously discovered the necessity of regularity and order among them as a people, and especially as respects the ministry, sensibly feeling the sad and disagreeable effects of imposition by those who say they are apostles and are not 'resolved' to assemble together at some place and consult together for the general good of the connection through the State."

The Hartwick Christian Church was organized January 9, 1814, the first building being of stone, and the second, as shown above, was erected in 1843.

An abridged copy of the minutes of this meeting, held in a schoolhouse before the church was erected, September 26-30, 1818, will be found in a previous number of THE CHRISTIAN ANNUAL (1914). Suffice it to say that the brethren "took into consideration the propriety of establishing a yearly conference in this State to confer on business relative to preachers and churches in general, which was unanimously agreed on." No attempt appears to have been made to adopt a constitution, the brethren contenting themselves with giving New Testament references as their all-sufficient authority for the things they did. The time of the conference seems to have been largely taken up with the preparation of a roll of ministers and the examination and setting apart of candidates for the ministry.

No mention is made of the sisters having any part in this first meeting but, at the next session, at Brutus, Cayuga Co., in October, 1819, the brethren showed the breadth of their vision when they "approved Abigail Roberts as having a public gift."

At the third session at "Charleston" (now Charleston Four Corners), September 18-20, 1820, it was "agreed to divide the New York Conference into two conferences, to be known by the names of East and West Conferences in New York, bounded by or near Onondaga County."

There is a feeling among the brethren that we have neglected our field work. As early as 1827 the fathers saw this need and "took into consideration the propriety of establishing a traveling ministry and accordingly appointed Elders Levi Hathaway, John Hollister, John Ross, and Edward H. Peavy to travel, as such, for this present year, with injunctions to visit all the churches belonging to this conference; and also that they keep an account of all their expenditures and of all gifts, donations, and public contributions; and that they render the same account to the committee whom the conference may see fit to appoint for that purpose at their next session."

I cannot bear to omit the letter which Rev. James Andrews presented in 1828, when he sought admission to the conference, as it so clearly shows the spirit of the early ministry.

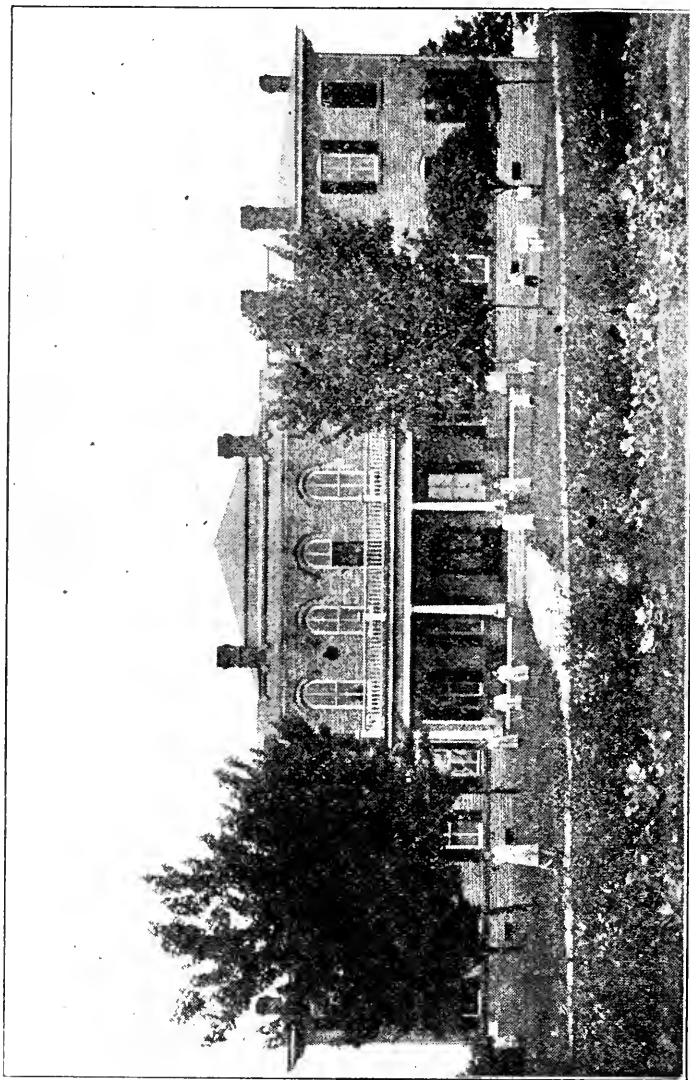

This is to certify that Br. James Andrews was by order of conference on the tenth day of August, 1818, at Big Spring, in Crawford County, Indiana, solemnly set apart to the ministry by fasting and prayer and laying on the hands of the Presbytery. Signed by order as above.

LEWIS BIRAM, Modr.

WM. KINKADE, Clerk.

We are only just beginning to consider the subject of ministerial relief, but eighty years ago the New York Eastern Christian Conference,

Resolved, That we most earnestly request every member to take the most efficient means within their sphere of labor to collect monies to constitute a fund to be held by this conference to be appropriated to the support of super-annuated and worn-out preachers, and the widows and orphans of deceased preachers, and to sustain the itinerant preachers to travel within our bounds, to visit destitute churches, set things in order and break new ground.

I shall quote but one more resolution, but it is one of deep significance since it marks the entry of the conference into "the field" which "is the world." In 1844 it was Resolved, That Br. Wm. Clark be our Treasurer to receive the collection of $19.00 contributed by the congregation at Milan at this Session, to aid in the spread of the gospel at the far West, and that he and Br. D. Wheeler, of Blackberry, Ill., be a committee to disburse said money and apply it where in their judgment it is most needed to sustain and build up the cause of Zion and that the recipient acknowledge the receipt through the Palladium.

"And what shall I more say? for the time would fail me to tell of" all the works of these early church fathers "who through faith subdued kingdoms" in the great West, "wrought righteousness" in a hundred communities, "obtained promises" of reformation, "stopped the mouths of lions" of ignorance, intemperance, and slavery, "out of weakness were made strong, waxed valiant in fight, turned to flight the armies of the aliens." God grant that we, upon whom their mantles have fallen, may not wear them unworthily and that at the last we may say, as they so surely could, "I have fought a good fight," "I have kept the faith."

Board of Trustees—W. Kirk Holt, Chairman, Burlington, N. C.; C. D. West, Newport News, Va.; H. C. Simpson, Greensboro, N. C.; Dr. G. S. Watson, Elon College, N. C.; B. D. Jones, Holland, Va.; John R. Foster, Burlington, N. C.; Chas. D. Johnston, Elon College, N. C.

The institution is supported entirely by freewill offerings in the following manner. Each church is asked to make a Thanksgiving offering on or near Thanksgiving and an Easter offering on or near Easter. Each Sunday-school is asked to make a monthly contribution one Sunday in each month to the maintenance of the institution. Individual gifts and bequests are solicited.

The institution is now taking care of fifty-one little children.

The institution has had in its charge one hundred twenty-five children. Has sent out seventy-four, and now has fifty-one children in its care.

A home for children under four years of age is very much needed.

No field was ever properly cultivated and no crop was ever grown until the trees were cut away. As soon as some of the theological trees that have shaded the fields of human thought and kept damp the heart of love can be cleared away we shall plant purer truth and grow better crops for the soul.

2. Military Drill is open to the ladies as well as the men of the college. For them it substitutes for Physical Culture work, as required for graduation. The drill is, of course, voluntary.

3. A Department of Religious Education has been established with Rev. N. G. Newman, D. D., as its head. Three three-hour-year-courses are to be offered and any student may elect them for a degree. It is the duty of a Christian College to equip for Kingdom leadership and Elon is determined to offer the instruction qualifying for such leadership.

Our War Record

We have sent nearly 700 of our sons and daughters to the colors. Many of them sleep the sleep of the glorified martyrs of human redemption and in their supreme sacrifice Elon, too, is glorified. Elon is proud to have contributed so liberally of her highest and best for this cause of righteousness and liberation for the world.

The Standardization Fund

Our campaign for $125,000.00 scheduled to have begun last fall and postponed till Dr. Atkinson could complete the $100,000.00 special fund for missions, is soon to begin its appeal to Elon's generous friends. It is to be known as The Standardization Fund. It is under the direction of Col. J. E. West, Hon. K. B. Johnson, and Dr. R. M. Morrow.

I am unable to report the number of students for the present term for four reasons, viz.: we were compelled to close for four weeks on account of the epidemic; a late crop of cotton this year has detained many; the war took, and has kept several more away; and the registration calling for boys eighteen to twenty-one prevented others who were expecting to come. Conditions are rapidly becoming better, because the letters and applications now on file indicate that we will have a full student body by January first.

We have accommodations for only one hundred boarders, which number increased by about seventy-five local students, makes us a capacity student body. We have not yet reached this number, and I dare not make any special effort to bring students to the institution, as the class rooms are too small to accommodate what we have. We are compelled to use the chapel and the library for class work.

Our Faculty for the Present Term Is as Follows:

President; Biblical Instructor; Commercial Arithmetic—Rev. Floyd Seeley Hendershot.

Secretary and Treasurer; Bookkeeping; Shorthand; Music—Rev. Mrs. Hazel Mead Hendershot.

Principal; Professor of Science—Professor Henry Edward Long.

Latin; Literature; History—Mrs. Cora B. Long.

Matron; Literature; History—Mrs. Burretta Lee Mangrum.

Mathematics; English—Miss Lea Alma A. Shoffner.

Teacher of the Grades—Miss Ora E. Wiggins.

Matron Dining Room and Kitchen—Miss Sadie L. Moore.

Franklinton Christian College is doing a great amount of good to the people for whom it was founded. It is a steady climb against many obstacles. Among those who style themselves leaders are to be found those who are hindering negro education most. The work of the institution goes forward, and the opposition inspires us to greater work.

I wish to repeat word for word with as great emphasis as possible, one paragraph of my report of last year, as follows: "We greatly need another building and more teachers if we are to keep pace with the rapidly increasing needs of the people. We need Domestic Science equipment, and we need an Agricultural Course with equipment, but we haven't the room nor the teachers. Will not some one who is in sympathy with this great work, and who has the means, help us to supply these needs?"

Those who have visited the institution have been very favorably impressed.

We wish that many more might visit us. Ministers and laymen who go to Florida for the winters could very profitably spend a stop-over period with us. The students are always anxious to have their northern friends address them. The singing of the student body will thrill and fill the heart of any listener, unless he has a heart of stone.

I am glad to report that Bishop Cottage is completed and paid for. It is a splendid structure and very comfortable. There is considerable work to be done on the grounds before the place will reach our ideal, but this work is being done as we have opportunity. We sincerely thank all readers of this report for any assistance they may have rendered in making this home possible.

PALMER COLLEGE AND CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC

Reorganized as a Junior College, for Men and Women, in 1916, in Harmony with the requirements for standardized Junior Colleges with the

UNIVERSITY OF MISSOURI

All courses reorganized and equipment added, as outlined by the Junior College Committee of the University of Missouri, and officially accredited as a Junior College by said University.

Advantages

Helpful religious atmosphere.

Moderate expenses.

Standard courses.

High standard of scholarship, discipline, and character.

Clean and wholesome athletics.

Select body of students.

Ideal location and surroundings.

Owing to war conditions and other circumstances, Palmer College was closed February 1, 1918, except the departments of Music, Expression, and Commercial, which continued until the end of the college year 1918. It was the purpose of the managers of the college to continue these Departments through the college year of 1918 and 1919, but one of the instructors was called to defend the cause of liberty, and another resigned. By reason of these hindrances the Executive Board, in council with other members of the board, on August 7, 1918, decided to close all departments until the end of the war.

$200,000.00 Endowment

A plan is now on foot, conceived by Professor G. R. Stoner, of California, to secure an endowment for Palmer College of $200,000.

It is confidently expected that the college will be reopened with new and enlarged equipment, in all of its Departments, in September, 1919.

WORK FOR THIS YEAR

BY ALICE V. MORRILL, PRESIDENT

The postponement of The American Christian Convention has made it late to decide on the work for this year. As soon as the General Boards had held their meeting the Woman's Boards made their plans. The General Foreign Board asked the Woman's Foreign Board to continue the support of the Sendai Field and to give as largely as possible to the Mission Homes in Ponce and Tokyo.

Our missionaries, Rev. and Mrs. E. K. McCord, expect to return to their work in Sendai this year. The salaries of the Japanese pastors have been increased, which calls for an increase in our budget. Our young people did so splendidly last year that we are asking big things from them this year. With two new missionaries under appointment for Porto Rico, we are expecting our work there to go forward with increasing success. We are confidently hoping to complete the building funds for both Mission Homes and the Santa Isabel chapel this year. We can do it, can't we? Of course we can.

BUDGET OF THE WOMAN'S FOREIGN BOARD FOR 1919

Sendai Field	$ 3,500
Workers and Stations outside Sendai Field	2,500
Building Funds, including Santa Isabel	3,000
Young People's Department	1,000
Total	$10,000

It is our high privilege to keep the treasury filled, the contents of which shall be translated through the blessing of God and the labors of our ambassadors into lines sacred and glorified, made meet for the Kingdom.

BUDGET OF WOMAN'S HOME BOARD FOR 1919

BY ALICE M. BURNETT, CORRESPONDING SECRETARY

Frontier Work and Administration	$3,000
Franklinton	1,000
Thank-offering	1,000
Young People's Department	1,000
Total	$6,000

There are great opportunities in the frontier at present. We must invest more men, money, and service. Franklinton is in great need of industrial equipment. They have a farm and school building, but need something with which to work. Let us not withhold the necessary equipment from this child of our church.

Our aim is to move forward. America for Christ!

FORWARD TOGETHER

BY ALICE V. MORRILL, PRESIDENT W. B. F. M.

During one of the great battles in France the men were not keeping together and the officer shouted: "KEEP TOGETHER! KEEP TOGETHER! ONE MAN CANNOT TAKE A TRENCH." These are good words to keep ringing in the ears of the men and women of our churches during our Forward Movement Campaign.

Every board, every department, every conference, every church, every local organization, every man, woman, and child in united effort in perfect step—eyes ahead! The officers may plan to take a trench, but the soldiers, keeping together, finally accomplish the task.

Our Woman's Boards have lined up with the Forward Movement and have adopted the following "Goals for the Quadrennium" which were suggested by Dr. W. H. Denison, the Superintendent of the Movement:

1. Devotion—600 New Pledged Intercessors.
2. Evangelism—
 - (a) A Woman's Mission Board thoroughly organized in every conference.
 - (b) One Hundred New Missionary Societies.
 - (c) Two Thousand New Members in the Societies.
3. Religious Education—
 - (a) One Hundred and Fifty Missionary Societies studying the Woman's Home and Foreign Mission Study books each year.
 - (b) Six Hundred Increased Christian Missionary Subscriptions.
4. Missions—Eighty Thousand Dollars for the Quadrennium.
5. Benevolence—Teach Tithing, Stewardship, Individuals, and Churches to support missionaries and missions.

Our "Standard of Excellence" for local societies is being revised, and a new standard for Conference Boards prepared to harmonize with these goals.

Of the financial goal, $80,000, the Woman's Foreign Board will assume $50,000, and the Woman's Home Board $30,000.

These are goals large enough to challenge the very best service of every one of us. They are large enough to drive us to our heavenly Father for strength sufficient for the task. They are not too large for the women of the Christian Church, plus the power of the Holy Spirit, to reach.

Let us concentrate our energies in one big, stimulating, united effort. We must prepare for this work, for, like every other worth-while thing, it will not do itself. New literature is being prepared which should be placed in the hands of every woman. We call upon every woman in every church to join in the prayer, faith, and service which alone can make this great movement successful.

FORWARD TOGETHER!

CONFERENCE DEPARTMENT

EXPLANATORY

Some of the items heretofore found in the report of churches are omitted this year. The urgent request of the government to conserve white paper, the scarcity of it, the difficulty of getting a sufficient quantity, the great cost of it when gotten, to which must be added the advance in wages and the few people to do the work, are the main reasons for the omission. Then, too, some of the items remain unchanged year after year, which make their publication a repetition, rather than information.

THE WOMAN'S BOARD

The report of the Woman's Boards will be found in the Woman's Department which is re-established at the request of those who have the larger use for this department.

YORK AND CUMBERLAND

(Reported by Secretary Moulton)

Session of 1918—Freedom, N. H.

Session of 1919—

I cannot make much of a report, as at our annual session there was not a delegate present and only a few sent in written reports. Have written to those who did not report three different times and still no report. The influenza has been raging here for a long time and there are still many cases. I think in most churches the report stands as last year, except nearly all have increased the salaries of their pastors.

With the late session of the Miami Ohio Christian Conference, Rev. Hugh A. Smith, D. D., now of Warren, Indiana, retired from the presidency of the conference, having served eleven years. During five of these years he had the official co-operation and brotherly fellowship of Rev. Pressley E. Zartmann, the efficient Conference Secretary. On September 1, 1908, the one-hundredth anniversary of THE HERALD OF GOSPEL LIBERTY, Rev. Dr. Smith extended the hand of fellowship to Rev. Mr. Zartmann, and received him to licentiate membership in the Miami Ohio Christian Conference. In February following, Mr. Zartmann became pastor of the Walnut Hills Christian church, celebrating his ten years' service from January 29 to February 2, 1919. On December 3, 1911, Rev. Dr. Smith was a member of the presbytery that ordained Mr. Zartmann to the work of the gospel ministry. These two men have been faithful to each other in all their personal relationships, and loyal to their tasks as officers of the Conference. The picture of these gentlemen was taken at the last session of Miami Conference, held at Eaton, Ohio, August 31, to September 4, 1918.

MINISTERIAL DIRECTORY

A WORD ABOUT THIS MINISTERIAL LIST

Everything was done that care, patience, and perseverance could do to have the ministerial list correct. There are a few names on the list that were not reported to the office of the editor by conference officers. These few are given without naming conference membership. The absence of a name from the ministerial list means that it was not in the ministerial report given by the Conference Secretary.

BLYMYER CHURCH BELLS

"Bring People to Church"

THEIR clear sweet tones are an invitation and constant call to duty. Your church needs one—countless stay-at-homes will be influenced.

A Blymyer Bell will help you reach the most people, will help increase church attendance and will be for all time to come a power of good.

A Blymyer Church Bell will be as much a part of your church service as the music.

Blymyer Bells, because of their special composition and design, are sweet-toned, far-sounding, and durable. Their cost is low.

Write for illustrative bell book and present low prices.

Le Page INDIVIDUAL COMMUNION CUPS

UNBREAKABLE POINTED TOP STYLE (patented). The only cups that enable the communicant to partake with head bowed (no tipping back necessary). The only cups that can be washed and sterilized in bulk—no wiping or polishing required—saves hours of work—no breakage—Trays are noiseless and dust-proof.
We also make all other styles of individual services and we send outfits on trial at our expense—Send post-card for illustrated catalog and particulars of our "free trial" plan.

LE PAGE INDIVIDUAL COMMUNION CUP CO. 2382 Dundas St., W. TORONTO, CANADA

Gentlemen:—It is with pleasure that I write this note which I believe will give you commendable pride from the fact that we in St. Andrews Church, Brighton, have used your individual communion cups for the last fourteen or fifteen years, and have broken just one. They have been sterilized and washed four times a year since they were presented to the session for use nearly a score of years ago. We gladly recommend them to any session needing communion cups.—Yours truly, B. C. H. BECKER, Representative Elder.
